IMPORTANT NOTICE:

In accordance with the rules of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs, Chapter 55A-7, Veterans' Preference in Appointment and Retention in Employment and Florida Law, preference in appointment, employment and promotion shall be given, by the state and its political subdivisions, first to those persons included in categories 1 and 2 and second to those persons included under categories 3,4 and 5 as shown on previous pages. Preference in appointment and employment requires that the preferred applicant be given special consideration each step of the employment selection process but does not require the employment of a preferred applicant over a non-preferred applicant who is the most qualified for the position.

An applicant eligible for veterans' preference who believes they were not afforded employment preference in accordance with the rules may file a complaint with the City Veterans Service Officer (CVSO) or Florida Department of Veterans Affairs (727) 319-7462 and request an investigation. When the applicant has received notice of hiring decision from the employer, the complaint shall be filed within 21 calendar days from the date that the notice is received by the applicant (postal time will be considered no more than 5 days from the date notice was mailed by employer). When the applicant has not received a notice of hiring decision within two calendar months of the receipt of the application by the employer, the applicant shall contact the employer to determine if the position has been filled by the appointment of a non-preferred applicant. After having determined from the information supplied by the employer that the position has been filled by a non-preferred applicant, the preferred applicant may file a complaint within 3 calendar months of the date the application was received by the employer. If the position has not been filled, the time the period for filing a complaint is extended to provide the preferred applicant one calendar month after having determined that the position was filled. It is the responsibility of the preferred applicant to maintain contact with the employer to determine if the position has been filled.

<http://www.floridavets.org/benefits/veteranspref.htm>

Town of LaCrosse accepts applications on a continuous basis, the date of receipt of the application by the employer shall be considered the date that the applicant is signed up for the job classification.

The following positions are exempt from Veterans' Preference provisions: positions filled by officers elected by popular vote or persons appointed to fill vacancies in such offices and the personal secretary of each officer, members of boards and commissions, persons employed on a temporary basis without benefits, heads of Departments, positions which require licensure such as a physician, and positions which require that the employee be a member of the Florida Bar.
